

Making Feminist Mischief: Reflections on the place of feminism within the law school. An evening with Professor Rosemary Auchmuty.

March 6th 2024 at 6.30

Mary Lines Café, Westminster Law School, 4-12
Little Titchfield Street, London W1W 7BY

Book tickets via Eventbrite here

Professor Auchmuty is a leading feminist legal scholar, Her ground breaking work includes legal history, land law and legal education. She has had a particularly close relationship with Westminster Law School where she was a student and a senior member of the academic staff over many years. We welcome her back to reflect, along with Dr Harriet Samuels, Professor Judith Bourne and Dr Caroline Derry, on the role of feminism within the legal academy.