

Law and Global Justice at Durham Postgraduate Conference Durham Law School, PCL050, April 26th 2024

9:00-9:30 Welcome/Coffee and registration

9:30-11:00 Session One

Sam Chollet (Durham University): ‘The Sex/Gender Binary Ideology: Inconsistencies in the ECtHR’s Case Law on Trans and Intersex People’ (Discussant: Dr Kasey McCall-Smith, Edinburgh Law School)

Rüya Tuna Toparlak (University of Lucerne, visiting Durham University): ‘A Phenomenological Discussion on Sex Robots: Feminist Perspectives’ (Discussant: Dr Gail Lythgoe, Edinburgh Law School)

Ahmed Shafquat Hassan (Durham University): ‘Re-Envisioning Responsibility to Protect (R2P) for the Rohingya People’ (Discussant: Dr Amina Adanan, Maynooth University Law School)

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-13:00 Session Two

Ziyu Miao (Durham University): ‘Algorithmic Discrimination and Gender Equality: Future Pathways of EU Non-Discrimination Law Drawing on Global Experience’ (Discussant: Professor Valsamis Mitsilegas, Liverpool Law School)

Sukru Surucu (Edinburgh University): ‘The Silent Symphony: The Role of Assemblages in the Involvement of the UNHCR in Externalisation of Asylum Processing and Making of a Mandate Problem’ (Discussant: Professor Catherine O’Rourke, Durham Law School)

Jianxuan Hu (Durham University): ‘How Could We Understand Penal Populism in a Globalised World?’ (Discussant: Dr Vera Piovosan, Durham Law School)

13:00 Lunch and Close